

The Social
WorldMrs. James M. Symington and baby.
DAVIS & SANFORD PHOTOSociety Europe-Bound for International Polo Games

Every Outgoing Liner Crowded With Fashionable Folk Intent on Brief Trip to England and the Continent; Many to Remain Through Summer

ALL the outgoing liners are sailing with crowded passenger lists, and members of society from New York, Boston, Washington, Philadelphia, Chicago and other social centers are well represented. On one day alone—Thursday—of last week more than 6,000 persons departed on vessels leaving New York harbor, and yesterday many more started abroad. Some of the members of the fashionable world going to Europe will be gone only a few weeks, to attend the international polo games in June and for short trips on the Continent, while others will remain abroad all summer and will not open their resorts this season. This apparently will have no great effect on the resorts, however, for reports from the seashore and inland places indicate one of the gayest seasons in years, and plans are being made at all the resorts for a brilliant summer. Newport, Southampton, the Maine, Massachusetts and New Jersey coast resorts, the Adirondacks, Thousand Islands, White Mountains and Berkshires are planning for early openings.

Reginald C. Vanderbilt sailed for Europe yesterday on the Olympic to attend the polo games and to act as judge of hackneys at the Olympia Horse Show in England early next month. He will later go to Paris, where he has taken an apartment. On his return in August he will go to Newport.

Joseph S. Uman sailed on the same steamer. He will go to Paris, where he will be a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, the Duke and Duchess de Montmorency.

Others who went out on the Olympic were Mrs. W. Bourke Cockran, Frederick C. Havemeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Forth Wickes, of Texado and New York; Mrs. R. Burnham Moffat, whose daughter, Miss Elizabeth Barclay Moffat, was married to John Campbell White, son of Henry White, on April 9, in St. James's Church. Also Mr. and Mrs. David H. Taylor, of 19 East Ninety-second Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt.

Mr. MacNeil Rodewald, of Texado and New York, and Miss A. L. Rodewald sailed yesterday on the Cedric, to pass several weeks abroad. Dr. and Mrs. James Bishop sailed on the same vessel.

Mrs. J. O. Green and her sisters, Miss Eleanor G. and Miss Sarah Cooper Hewitt, sailed on the Mauretania last week to pass most of the summer abroad. Among their fellow passengers were Mr. and Mrs. R. Roy King, who were married a week ago yesterday in St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square; Mr. King's mother, Mrs. L. R. King; Miss Ethel King and Miss Helen Cameron.

Others who went on the same steamer were Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope, William L. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Schieffelin, Miss Mary S. Schieffelin and Cooper Schieffelin and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kingsland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Town Kirby sailed yesterday on the Olympic. While abroad Mr. Kirby will attend various international conferences on sport to be held at Lusane, Switzerland, the first of this month and the first week of June. They will return to this country next month and go to their country place at Bedford Hills, N. Y.

Mrs. Jesse Hoyt, of 969 Park Avenue, who sailed last week, will pass the summer in Paris with her daughter, Mrs. John M. L. Rutherford and Mrs. Henry Loden sailed on the Mauretania yesterday to pass several weeks in England. They recently returned from Long Beach, where they were for the winter part of the winter. Both are prominent members of the Tuxedo Club.

Mrs. Johnston Livingston and Miss Willis and Miss Sylvia Livingston and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dixon sailed on the Olympic last Thursday. They will pass many years of the American Polo season, will sail for England on May 24, for the polo matches. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Hazard and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gerard are expected to sail on board the City of Paris on May 24, on board the City of Paris.

Navy Club Indorsed by
Washington Society

State Association Meets With Mrs. Langdon on Governor's Island

The Washington State Association of the City of New York held its last regular business meeting on Monday with Mrs. Langdon on Governor's Island. Mrs. William Pitt Trimble, the president, presided. All the year's unfinished business was disposed of and plans outlined for the carrying on of work in an informal way through the summer vacation.

Some new matters came up, several reports were made and two resolutions were passed. There was a general discussion and the definite limits of the association's activities was set. These will be confined to actual work for Washington State welfare and progress in the City of New York with the relaying of interesting information to home towns and cities through people, press and Chambers of Commerce.

Mrs. Samuel P. Weston, the secretary, introduced a resolution recommending the work of the Navy Club, and copies of this, with Navy Club data, will be sent West. Mrs. Mary Jester Allen, seconded by Mrs. George Kittinger, presented a resolution approving and endorsing the Women's Roosevelt Memorial Association. Both resolutions were passed unanimously.

After the business session Colonel and Mrs. Langdon took the members on a sightseeing tour, and later the officers, including General Bullard, and ladies of the island had tea with Mrs. Langdon.

Mrs. Langdon's father, Governor Semple, was one of the early Governors of Washington.

Recently the association was given a reception by Mrs. Trimble, 993 Park Avenue, at which Mrs. Douglas Robinson was guest of honor.

Open Air Fete June 12
For Free Milk for Italy

Event Will Be Given at Mrs. F. S. Henderson's Roslyn Estate

An open air fete for free milk for Italy, on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Henderson's large country place at Roslyn, L. I. "Villa Marina" will be given on the afternoon of Sunday, June 12.

Outdoor sports are to be a feature. There will be a putting contest and swimming matches, together with dancing and tea.

Maytime Events
Keep Visitors at
Hot Springs Busy

Dinners and Entertainments Given at Virginia Resort by Cottage Colonists and Guests From Many Cities

HOT SPRINGS, Va., May 14.—A number of interesting events and arrivals have marked the first half of May at the Virginia Hot Springs. In the Homestead and in the cottage colony there have been many entertainments. A number of the colonists went to a luncheon given by the Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz at their place, Roseloe, early in the week. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kierstedt, Mr. and Mrs. George Batchelder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. Breckenridge Long, Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Gowan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Leonard, Colonel and Mrs. Arthur Kelly Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ellis Jr., and Miss Grace Ellis, Mrs. Charles Mills Hinkle, and Miss Jean Hinkle, Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp and the Messrs. Robert Batchelder, John Godfrey Saxe and Harry H. Warner.

A dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dobyne, of Beverly Farms, Mass., in their private apartment in the Homestead for Dr. and Mrs. Hobart Warren, of Beverly Farms, who were their guests several days. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sherrick and Winthrop Williams, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Dunham and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Fenn, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett Blodgett, of Boston.

A birthday dinner was given by George A. Ellis Jr., of New York, in the Homestead, for his sister, Miss Grace Ellis, the guests being Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kierstedt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. George Batchelder, Robert Batchelder and the Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seligman, who are at the Homestead for their usual spring visit, were hosts at a dinner in the Homestead early in the week. Mrs. L. M. Fulton, of Montclair, N. J., entertained at dinner Dr. and Mrs. Lanier Pole, Mrs. Albert French and Miss Agnes Hooker, and later took her guests to the movies in the Casino.

Mr. and Mrs. Sven Aldin Svenson walked to the Oaks on Tuesday for luncheon and then drove back to the Homestead through Dunn's Gap.

Mrs. George A. Ellis Jr. drove to Gillett's on the Jackson River for a brief visit. Mrs. Henry H. Fay, of Boston, motored there on Wednesday for luncheon, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary Fay, who went on horseback.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., who are at the Homestead from New York for a visit of ten days, were joined early in the week by Miss Littleton, who came up from Chattanooga to be with them in Hot Springs. Miss Beatrice Pratt arrived from New York and is with Mrs. Francis G. Landon and Miss Eleanor Landon.

Mrs. George D. Brett
and son George P.
Brett 3d. CAMPBELL STUDIOS

MRS. SYMINGTON before her marriage was Miss Cecily McKim. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McKim.

Mrs. Brett was Miss Isabel Yeomans. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas Yeomans.

Mrs. Shiland was Miss Harriette L. McAlpin. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Willet McAlpin.

Mrs. Wyatt before her marriage was Miss Euphemia Van R. Waddington.

Mrs. Fleitmann was Miss Alice E. Chambers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Flewellen Chambers.

Engagements of Interest
Announced to Society

SEVERAL engagements of interest to the social world were announced last week and many more are formally made known to-day. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Williams, of Dunkirk, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Kendall Lewis, to William Meyers Jr., of Manchester, England. Mr. Meyers was a captain in the British Infantry, during the war, Colonel Lewis is the inventor of the Lewis machine gun.

The engagement of Miss Anita Matilda McDermott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dillon J. McDermott, of 542 West 112th Street, to Lester Vincent Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Murphy, has just been made. Miss McDermott is a graduate of St. Elizabeth's Academy, Convent, N. J. Mr. Murphy served overseas with the 27th Division, Company A, of the 104th Machine Gun Battalion. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Joseph Shattuck, of Rye, N. Y., announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Shattuck, to Ernest Grant Howes Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grant Howes, of 325 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Mass. Miss Shattuck is a graduate of Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Isabelle McPherson, to Wilkey Clegg Richerson, of this city. Miss McPherson is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ross McPherson, of 45 East Sixty-second Street. Miss McPherson who made her debut several years ago is a member of the Junior League. During the war she was active with the New York branch of the Y. W. C. A. Mr. Richerson is a graduate of Princeton, class '20 and served in the navy during the war, both in this country and abroad.

Announcement has been made by Colonel and Mrs. Isaac Newton Lewis, of 2 Russell Terrace, Montclair, N. J., of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Kendall Lewis, to William Meyers Jr., of Manchester, England. Mr. Meyers was a captain in the British Infantry, during the war, Colonel Lewis is the inventor of the Lewis machine gun.

Many Tuxedo Park
Homes Open; Long
Season Expected

Early Spring Causes Steady Influx of Fashionable Set; Extensive Plans Begun for Annual Horse Show

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., May 14.—An unusually early spring has caused a steady influx of the members of the Park colony to their homes here, and forecasts a long and eventful season.

Among the recent arrivals are the Rev. G. W. Douglas, rector of St. John's Church, Washington, and Mrs. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant Mason, Mrs. J. M. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mitchell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Parmentier, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Delafield, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Seton, R. F. Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Wilmerding, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Carey, George F. Baker, Mrs. C. H. Coster, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Amos French, Mrs. Richard Mortimer, Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff, the Rev. Alfred Duane Fell and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cowdin.

Extensive plans are under way for the Tuxedo Horse Show, which will be held June 3 and 4. This is one of the most attractive events of the season, and its popularity among the social set taxes the capacity of the Park each year.

For the first time in the history of this section, polo is becoming the fashion. The wonderful polo grounds built by W. Averil Harriman on his estate in 1914, but which were not used on account of the war, have now been put to use by the Arden Polo Club. Games are being held every week and are most attractive to the polo fans in the Tuxedo-Harriman area. Many spirited games already have been played with the West Point cadets, who have their grounds but a few miles away.

Countess Laszlo Szechenyi returned from Europe on the Mauretania this week, and, with her mother, Mrs. Vanderbilt, will be at the Park for a few weeks.

The series of three morning musicals given under the direction of Gordon Russell Thayer at the home of Miss R. Schofield will be held this year on June 10, 17 and 24.

Jackson Wedding Changed
Mrs. Brady's Death Causes
Plans To Be Altered

Owing to the death of Mrs. Anthony Brady in Albany, plans have been changed for the wedding of Miss Betty Jackson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, of 969 Park Avenue, to Howard W. Maxwell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Maxwell, of this city, on June 11. The wedding will take place as originally intended at the country place of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas F. Brady, at Roslyn, of New York, and Mrs. W. T. Kirk, Jr., of Haverford, Pa. Commander Hammer, who is at present attached to the staff

Mrs. Christopher Wyatt and children, AINE DUPONT STUDIO 6 E 46 ST

Grosvenor-Wilder Wedding
At Newport Simple Affair

Only Relatives Attend Ceremony Which Attracts the Most Interest of Many Nuptial Events Which Are Crowded Into the Last of the Week

MANY weddings took place yesterday, one of the most important being that of Mrs. Rose Dimond Phinney Grosvenor, widow of William Grosvenor, to General William Elliott Wilder, U. S. A., retired, of Washington and New York. The announcement of their engagement two days ago was the surprise of the spring among the Newport set. The ceremony was performed at noon in Roslyn, the estate of the bride at Newport, by the Rev. Charles W. Forster, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church. Only about twenty-four relatives were present and there were no attendants. All of the six children of the bride, with the exception of Theodore, who is in Europe, were in attendance. They include Mrs. Dudley M. Davis, of New York; Mrs. G. Peabody Gardner Jr., Mrs. G. M. Congdon, Mrs. Richard C. Curtis and William Grosvenor. Their families also were in attendance. The other guests were Mrs. Anne Grosvenor, a sister-in-law; Mrs. Robert Grosvenor, widow of the bride's son; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Norris and Miss Maria Norris, cousins; the Misses Phinney sisters; Miss Therese Damon, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Throop Wilder, son and daughter-in-law of General Wilder.

After the ceremony there was luncheon at Roslyn for the wedding party, and later in the day General and Mrs. Wilder left Newport. Their plans for the future were withheld. Mrs. Wilder did say, however, that they might go to Europe within a month.

A simple floral decorative effect was used at Roslyn for the wedding. The reception, which will be kept open and used during the summer season by members of Mrs. Wilder's family if she and her husband do not remain here.

Mrs. Wilder comes of one of the oldest and has been long prominent in the social life of Newport, New York and Providence.

Miss Sophie Mistle Pond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas M. Pond, was married to George N. Walker, of Washington, D. C., yesterday afternoon in the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin. She had for her bridal attendants her sister, Mrs. Joseph Nathaniel Greene and Miss Mary Marsh. Frederick Lovejoy served as Mr. Walker's best man. The ushers were Church C. Peters, Ganson Dewey, Allen Ames, Kenneth Wood, Parker Allen and Robert Lovett. A reception was held at 63 West Seventy-fifth Street, the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Beatrice Valerie Cook, daughter of Mrs. Ferdinand Hunting Cook, became the bride of Lester D. Egbert D. Egbert, a son of Prof. James C. Egbert, of Columbia University, and Mrs. Egbert, yesterday afternoon in All Angels Church, West End Avenue and Eighty-first Street. The Rev. Dr. S. De Lancey Townsend, the rector, officiated. A small reception followed in the ballroom of the Gotham. Mrs. George P. Egbert, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. George P. Egbert served as his brother's best man, and the ushers were Howard H. Cook, brother of the bride; Warren B. Chapin, Roland A. Hillas, Elliott H. Downes, Walter S. L. Forster and Kenneth Watkins. Mr. Egbert and his bride will live in Montclair, N. J.

In St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, N. J., yesterday Miss Dorothy Whitney Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Kirk, became the bride of Commander E. C. Hammer Jr. She was attended by Mrs. W. E. Woodford Jr., of Rye, N. Y., as matron of honor, and by Mrs. A. G. Kirk and Mrs. H. L. Lanza, of Washington; Mrs. C. H. Lewis, of New York, and Mrs. W. T. Kirk, Jr., of Haverford, Pa. Commander Hammer, who is at present attached to the staff

The marriage of Miss Lucia Lawrence Meigs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris J. Meigs, of Bronxville, to Penrose Vasa Stout, of Bronxville, took place yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. The bride, who is a granddaughter of Titus B. Meigs and William Van Dusen Lawrence, was attended by Sarah Elizabeth Blaisdell as flower girl, Miss Marjorie Lawrence Meigs, her sister, as maid of honor, and Miss Isabel McLeish, of Chicago; Miss Elizabeth Allen, of Bronxville; Miss Lily Ruperti, of New York, and Miss Hester O. Meigs, another sister of the bride.